

ASSOCIATION FOR RECORDED SOUND COLLECTIONS -- JOURNAL
David Hall -- Editor

Vol. I Nos. 2/3 -- Summer-Fall 1968

Officers of the Association

President -- Philip L. Miller, New York Public Library (Ret.)
1st Vice-President -- Donald L. Leavitt, Library of Congress
2nd Vice-President -- Carlos B. Hagen, University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA)
Treasurer -- Archie Green, University of Illinois
Recording Secretary -- Violette N. Jackson, Rochester, Mich.
Corresponding Sec'y. -- Paul T. Jackson, Oakland U. Library,
Rochester, Mich.

Committees

Legal -- Dr. A.F.R. Lawrence, New York City
William McClellan, University of Illinois
William R. Moran, Stanford University
Finance -- Walter L. Welch, Syracuse University
Frank R. Davis, Henry Ford Museum, Dearborn, Mich. (Ret.)
Milo Ryan, University of Washington
Program -- Frank Gillis, University of Indiana
Jerrold N. Moore, Yale University
Kurtz Myers, Detroit Public Library
Helen Roach, Brooklyn College
Publication -- David Hall, New York Public Library
Lewis G. Green, Lewis G. Green Productions,
Chicago, Ill.
Membership -- Elizabeth Hartman, Free Library of Philadelphia
Edward E. Colby, Stanford University
Edwin A. Ellis, Syracuse University Library
Arnold Jacobsen, Memory Shop, Grand Rapids, Mich.
Education & Standards--Ida Rosen, Princeton University
Thor E. Wood, New York Public Library
Barbara Krader, New York City
David Hamilton, W.W.Norton Co., New York City
Documentation -- Guthrie T. Meade, Jr., National Archives
Frank J. Gillis, University of Indiana
Joseph C. Hickerson, Library of Congress
Cataloging & Processing--Jean Bowen, New York Public Library
Equipment -- Robert Carneal, Library of Congress

Articles, news items, and announcements for future issues of the ARSC Journal are cordially invited. These should be sent to David Hall, Head; Rodgers and Hammerstein Archives of Recorded Sound, 111 Amsterdam Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10023. Other communications from members concerning ARSC matters also may be sent to this address, where they will be forwarded to the proper parties for prompt attention.