

BIBLIOGRAPHY OF DISCOGRAPHIES
ANNUAL CUMULATION--1977

Compiled and Edited by
Michael H. Gray and Gerald D. Gibson

Editorial Associates
Gary-Gabriel Gisondi and Dean Strohmeier

INTRODUCTION

This 1977 cumulation of the Bibliography of discographies is the sixth of the ongoing series in the ARSC Journal. As in the 1976 cumulation, two editorial associates have been added to the list of compilers: Gary-Gabriel Gisondi of the staff of the New York Public Library and Dean Strohmeier of the Library of Congress. Their help has given us additional eyes and pens to help us keep track of the ever-increasing flow of discographic material. In addition to the citations they have found and submitted, Dan Allen of Toronto, Canada, has provided his usual contribution of jazz discographies.

As in the previous Bibliographies a single A-to-Z alphabet of subjects has been used to organize the material. The form of personal names and subjects is based on the authority lists of the Library of Congress; where appropriate cross-references linking variant subjects or name forms have been made. A seven-element annotative code is used to identify elements in the discography which we believe to be important to users. These coded elements appear in double parentheses "(( ))" included in or following the citation. The symbol "((--))" is used to signify that no coded elements appear in the discography. Discographic entries enclosed in double brackets "[ ]" have not been examined by the compilers and therefore are not coded. The elements and their symbols are:

- 1 Noncommercial recordings
- 2 Personnel listings
- 3 Matrix numbers
- 4 Index
- 5 Release dates
- 6 Take numbers
- 7 Place and/or date of recording

Information on additional citations not included in this cumulation should be sent to Michael H. Gray, 3656 Gunston Rd., Alexandria, Virginia 22302.
