EDITORIAL POLICY

The ARSC Journal is the official journal of the Association for Recorded Sound Collections (ARSC). Its purpose is to serve as a vehicle for the dissemination of materials of interest to private collectors, institutional sound archivists, sound technicians and others interested in historical sound recordings.

The opinions expressed in this publication are solely those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the views of the Association for Recorded Sound Collections.

MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts, letters to the editor, and other communications pertaining to the editorial content of the ARSC Journal should be sent to Ted Sheldon, UMKC Libraries, 5100 Rockhill Road, Kansas City, Missouri 64110-2499. Manuscripts are sent out for review. "Instructions for Contributors" appears toward the end of this issue.

ADVERTISING

The ARSC Journal accepts advertising goods and services of interest to members of ARSC, and encourages advertising as a means to inform readers about products and services and to foster product communication between vendor and buyer. The ARSC Journal will adhere to all ethical and commonly accepted advertising practices and will ensure that its practices conform to Association policy. The ARSC Journal reserves the right to reject any advertisement deemed not relevant or consistent with the above or to the aims and policies of the ARSC.

The ARSC Journal Advertising Policy appears toward the end of this issue for the convenience of interested persons.

For information regarding advertising, contact Christine Hoffman, Rodgers and Hammerstein Archives of Recorded Sound, New York Public Library, 111 Amsterdam Ave., New York, New York 10023.
