New from

Chicago Soul

Robert Pruter

"Documents the development of Chicago's R&B scene from the emergence of Jerry Butler and the Impressions' seminal 'For Your Precious Love' in 1958 to its sad, largely unobserved demise during the late 1970s and early '80s. . . . Sure to stand the test of time as the ultimate research source on this subject." — Bill Dahl, Goldmine.

"An amazing piece of work that reveals just how vital a soul scene there was in the Windy City."

— Miles Jordan, Jazztimes.

"A splendid and essential compendium of information and comment upon the Chicago 'soul' industry, which grew out of the R&B and doo-wop of the late Fifties. . . . Newcomers will glean a lot of valuable insight into Chicago's music scene. Recommended." — Neil Slaven, Blues & Rhythm.

Partially funded by a grant from the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences, Inc.

Hello collector, dealer, friend!
 Prices I will pay are for items in excellent condition! Less for 'VG' or 'good' items! I pay half of price (50%) for a record I've in my collection. But top-$ for labels background informations (except Vogue)! I collect only and will buy any 78rpm 'full side picture' record.

Usual prices for known numbers: $ 35-40 for 'normal' Vogue, less for R-707, more for some rare, $10-15 for popular 6-7" kiddies.

Any trade is welcome! Available: Oldies on CD and picture disc (7"+LP, list enclosed), many new shapes ('80-'91) and some 78rpm picture records (no one 'normal' black vinyl or shellac!).

I would like to hear from you! Thank you and best wishes, Peter B.

If you want payment first, than send accurate informations about label and number, artist and title, and precise specifications of condition! For rare and expensive items send a photo or photocopy!

If you want to send record(s) first, so let me know before you do it by phone, FAX or air mail (shipment instructions!).

Shipment only by air mail! Postage for cardboard items should be free, for shellac records I will pay any charges.

I expect a discount or free postage if I buy quantities.

Payment I'll send the same day I'll receive letter or records.

I'm in business 10 years now and well-known in picture disc world. Ask other dealers or collectors.
