The ARSC Journal is the official journal of the Association for Recorded Sound Collections (ARSC). Its purpose is to serve as a vehicle for the dissemination of materials of interest to private collectors, institutional sound archivists, sound technicians and others interested in historical sound recordings.

The opinions expressed in this publication are solely those of the authors and do not necessarily represent the view of the Association for Recorded Sound Collections.

Manuscripts, letters to the editor, and other communications pertaining to the editorial content of the ARSC Journal should be sent to: Barry R. Ashpole, 377 Soudan Avenue, Toronto, Ontario, Canada M4S 1W6. Manuscripts should be original and are subject to a peer review process. Information for contributors appears on the inside back cover of this issue.

Inquiries regarding production and circulation should be directed to Ted P. Sheldon, Miller Nichols Library, University of Missouri - Kansas City, 5100 Rockhill Road, Kansas City, MO 64110-2499.
