

It gives me pleasure to extend an invitation to the Association for Recorded Sound Collections to hold its forthcoming annual conference at Stanford University. We consider it an honor to act as host, and anticipate a stimulating and productive conference.

Edward E. Colby, Archivist
Archive of Recorded Sound

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Holiday Inn, Palo Alto, California, February 8 - 11, 1976

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

Sunday, February 8

8:00 P.M. No-host Wine Tasting

Monday, February 9

9:00 A.M. Registration and Coffee Hour

10:00 A.M. Welcome and Announcements

10:30 A.M. First General Session

1:30 P.M. and
Second General Session

Oliver Berliner (Berliner Co.)

William R. Moran (Victor Project)

Thomas Stockham, Jr.

(Computer reconstruction of early recordings)

Les Waffan (Documentary sound recordings)

8:00 P.M. Visit Private Collections

Tuesday, February 10

9:00 A.M. Registration and Coffee Hour

9:30 P.M. Third General Session
Oral History
Willa Baum, Regional Oral History Program, Berkeley
Bernie Galm, UCLA Oral History Program
Léo La Clare, Public Archives of Canada

12:00 Noon Tour
Board bus for trip to a local winery for tour and tasting and to Berkeley for a visit of the Regional Oral History Program and the Lowie Museum.

8:00 P.M. Visit Private Collections

Wednesday, February 11

9:00 A.M. The Stanford Archive of Recorded Sound
Introduction by Edward E. Colby, Archivist
Tour

12:00 Noon ARSC Luncheon
ARSC Business Meeting

2:30 P.M. Record Swap