

NOTES ON THE CONTRIBUTORS

DAVID HALL is Head of the Rodgers and Hammerstein Archives, New York Public Library.

CHRISTOPHER DYMENT's latest publication, Felix Weingartner: Recollections and Recordings, was reviewed in the last number of this Journal.

JIM CARTWRIGHT is a discographer and record dealer in Austin, Texas.

LESLIE GERBER reviews records for the Syracuse Guide, The American Record Guide, and contributes the regular column Historische Aufnahmen to the ARSC Journal.

PHILIP L. MILLER is former Chief of the Music Division, New York Public Library.

JOHN W. BARKER reviews records for the American Record Guide.

WALTER PATE is a Graduate Student of Piano and Musicology at The Catholic University, Washington, D. C.

HENRY FOGEL is the Chief Executive of Syracuse's classical music station, WONO, from whose program guide, Syracuse Guide, this review has been reprinted with permission.

DAVID SOMMERFIELD is a descriptive cataloger in the Music Section, Descriptive Cataloging Division, Library of Congress.

RICHARD WARREN heads the Historical Sound Recordings Program at Yale University.

PAUL JACKSON is regular contributor of the On Record column.