

--- ARSC CONFERENCE GRANTS ---

Application Deadline: February 5, 2022

The Association for Recorded Sound Collections is now accepting applications for ARSC Conference Grants for its virtual Annual Conference, to be held May 18-21, 2022.

The grants are designed to:

- encourage ARSC members and non-members to attend their first ARSC conference
- reach out to college students and professionals in the early stages of their careers
- promote mentoring and professional development opportunities
- advance scholarly research and publication, and
- support ARSC members who desire to participate more actively in the association.

In addition, the committee will also be using a portion of our grant funds to specifically enable persons who identify as BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, People of Color) and LGBTQIA (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans, Questioning, Intersex, Asexual) to attend their first ARSC conference. Persons who do not identify as BIPOC/LGBTQIA are encouraged to apply for Conference Grants, as well.

Grant recipients are awarded:

- complimentary registration for the entire ARSC Annual Conference, to be held online in 2022.
- complimentary registration for the Pre-Conference Workshop, also to be held online in 2022.

At the time of application, the applicant must be planning to attend their first ARSC conference.

The applicant must also be one of the following:

- a college or university student aspiring to work with sound recordings
- a recent graduate seeking a professional position involving sound recordings
- a professional within the first five years of their career, who has demonstrated a dedication to sound recordings
- a discographer, collector, or other researcher showing compelling prospects for the publication or dissemination of their scholarly work.

Applicants who demonstrate an interest in serving on an ARSC committee, publishing their work in the ARSC Journal, or presenting at an ARSC conference will be given particular consideration. Preference will be given to applicants who plan to attend the entire conference, including the pre-conference workshop.
